FRANCE HAS A CRISIS

President Casimir-Perier Tenders His Resignation.

REPUBLICANS DESERTED HIM.

Cabinet Members Exhaust Every Argument to Induce Him to Remain at the Helm of the French Ship of State, but Without Avail—The National Assembly to Elect a Successor—It May Be Himself.

PARIS, Jan. 16.—It was announced last evening that M. Casimir-Perier, president of the French republic, has resigned office.

During the evening he conferred with the president of the senate, and then summoned M. Guérin, minister of justice; M. Leyques, minister of public instruction; M. Poincaré, minister of finance, and the prefect of the Seine. M. Leyques had a long conversation with the president, the result of which is not known.

A second official note was issued at 11 p.m., announcing the resignation of the president, and forecasting the ideas he intends to develop in his farewell address to the chamber of deputies. The note says that in the eyes of the president Monday's sitting of the chamber and the vote which overthrew the cabinet were

Only Secondary Incidents of the struggle which is proceeding against the parliamentary regime and public liberties.

M. Casimir-Perier had hoped that the president of the republic, who is deprived of means of action, would have been exempted from party attacks and the political confidence of the republicans would have accorded him power and authority. He had also hoped that those who, despite himself, had placed him in a position where he was unable to defend himself would have undertaken the defense of the first magistrate.

Continuing the note says that the president has requested the ministers to temporarily withdraw their resignations in order to facilitate the necessary changes.

Prime Minister Dupuy imparted President Casimir-Perier's decision to the presidents of the senate and chamber of deputies, who will forthwith call urgency sittings of those bodies. The greatest perplexity reigns in all political centers.

During the afternoon it had been remarked, not without surprise in the lobbies of the Palais Bourbon, that the crisis was not following the customary course, but appeared to be assuming

Graver Aspect Than Usual.

When the facts became known, consternation, amounting almost to stupor, seized everyone. There had been ominous hints in the press in the recent days that M. Casimir-Perier was growing tired of his position, yet nobody paid attention to them. The high character, experience, firmness and integrity of the president inspired the confidence of even the advanced Republicans.

The long conference which M. Casimir-Perier had with M. Challemet-Lacour, president of the senate, is now explained. He had already resolved to resign. M. Challemet-Lacour emptied his utmost eloquence in a vain endeavor to persuade the president to reconsider his decision, and quitted the Palace of the Elysée under a sense of deep distress.

All the members of the cabinet from Prime Minister Dupuy down followed. Challemet-Lacour had exhausted every argument to induce Casimir-Perier not to resign. Their efforts were without success.

At 9 o'clock Casimir-Perier sent a short letter to Prime Minister Dupuy informing him that his decision was irrevocable, and begging him to notify the presidents of the senate and chamber of deputies and to announce the fact to the Journal Officiel.

Dupuy accepted the task thus imposed upon him, and as on the occasion of the death of Carnot, finds himself again confronted with the transmission of powers involving difficulties of every description arising from the unexpected position of affairs. He seemed completely overwhelmed with the sense of his responsibilities, but speedily recovered and with the energy, coolness and foresight that he displayed on the occasion of the assassination of Carnot, proceeded to take the measures which the situation demanded.

To Elect a Successor.

After interviews of the prefect of the Seine and the prefect of police with M. Casimir-Perier, they received from Dupuy instructions to be followed during the crisis. Following is the text of the articles of the constitution relating to the change in the presidency:

Article 1.—The president of the republic is elected by an absolute majority of the suffrages of the senate and chamber of deputies not in national assembly. He is appointed for seven years, and is eligible for re-election.

Article 7 provides that in case of a vacature of the office through death or any other cause the national assembly shall proceed forthwith to elect a president. In the interval the council of ministers is invested with executive power. The national assembly being merely an elector at college all discussion therein is prohibited.

The report of the resignation of the president became generally known at 11 o'clock, but was universally discredited, and a general movement was made toward the newspaper offices with a view to learning the truth. Very soon the papers exhibited lantern transparencies of the official note. Even then many papers refused to believe that the event was possible. Finally they became convinced that the president had really retired and assembled in groups discussing the chances of those who would be named to succeed him.

Did Socialism Cause It?

PARIS, Jan. 16, 8 a.m.—The socialist group in the chamber of deputies have issued a manifesto saying they do not believe that Casimir-Perier will present himself for re-election. The manifesto adds:

"He is gone forever, vanquished by socialism. He failed in the combat to obtain the victory expected of him by the reactionaries on account of his weakness of character. It is a victory for the socialist party. Wishing to struggle against us, he found only rotten instruments. He perished through the corruption of the regime of which he was the chief. He was defeated by the intrigues of his president of the council."

The manifesto finds his flight shameful and says: "In the dishonor of such a flight the capitalist class will perish. The downfall of Casimir-Perier is the downfall of capitalism and reaction. Let us remain united as the supreme crisis approaches and desert not our post of combat."

Casimir-Perier May Be Re-Elected.

PARIS, Jan. 16.—The senate and chamber of deputies have been summoned to meet this afternoon to receive government communications. M. Dupuy will read the president's message in the chamber and M. Guérin will read it in the senate.

It is believed that the national assembly will meet Thursday. These best informed as to the political situation believe that Casimir-Perier will be re-elected by a large majority. It is expected the steps will be taken to bring about this result. If they fail it is probable that the government parties will choose Dupuy as their candidate. The names of Waldeck-Rousseau, Challemet-Lacour and Spuller are also mentioned in connection with the office.

BATTLE IN AFRICA.

Italian Troops and Abyssinians Come Together Near Coatic.

MASSOWAH, Egypt, Jan. 16.—The Italian troops, under General Baratieri, have had some sharp fighting with a large force of Abyssinians, led by Ras Mangascia. The latter was attacked unexpectedly by the Italians near Coatic on Sunday last. The enemy numbered 1,000, armed with rifles, and in addition the Abyssinians had numbers of spearmen. The Italians compelled the enemy to retreat to the Gondar mountains.

Later in the day the enemy returned to the attack and advanced upon the front of the Italian expedition, when the Abyssinians were repulsed with serious loss. The enemy attempted to make a flank attack, but was again repulsed.

The Abyssinians continued to keep an irregular musketry fire on the Italian troops until nightfall, but there was no further fighting of a serious nature.

General Baratieri is now encamped at Coatic. The Italians fought well, and the casualties among them were few. The captives, who fell into the hands of the Italians, say that the Abyssinians lost very heavily.

Living Pictures at Denver.

DENVER, Jan. 16.—The board of aldermen, by a tie vote, has refused to appoint a committee to investigate and report upon the living pictures which are being exhibited at the Broadway theater in this city. There is an ordinance prohibiting indecent exhibitions, which it is the duty of the police board to enforce, and the Woman's Christian Temperance union protesters against the pictures were advised to take their case before that board.

Detective Norris Held.

RICHMOND, Jan. 16.—Detective John T. Norris of Springfield, O., under arrest here as a suspect in the gold brick swindle, was taken before Police Judge Crutchfield, and a motion made to discharge him. Letters from the mayors of Cincinnati, Springfield and Chief Shea of the Chicago detectives were read to show that Norris was a man of integrity and honesty. The justice refused to release him, and he was remanded to jail.

Cashier Indicted.

OMAHA, Jan. 16.—The federal grand jury has returned an indictment against R. C. Outcalt, cashier of the broken Capital National bank of Lincoln, charging him with falsifying books of the banks. This is the bank in which the state lost $236,000, and President Meshler is now serving a sentence of five years for looting.

It's Carter and Mantle.

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 16.—Both houses of the legislature balloted separately for United States senator yesterday. The Republican caucus nominees, Leo Mantle for the short term and Thomas H. Carter for the long term, received the solid Republican vote in both houses, and today their election will be ratified in joint assembly.

Fatal Bridge Accident.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 16.—A strong wind blew over the falsework of a new bridge being erected over the Monongahela river at Homestead, and a number of workmen were dashed to the ground, a distance of 30 feet. One man was killed, one fatally injured, another seriously hurt and several badly bruised.

TOLEDO, Jan. 16.—Fragments of an unknown man's body were found near Gibsonville, the scene of the nitro-glycerin explosion. It is supposed that a tramp was warming himself by the stove and that he may have knocked a can of the deadly explosive down.

CONGRESS YESTERDAY.

Populist Doctrines Compared With Those of Other Parties.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The senate yesterday gave the day to further speeches, in which the income tax served as a text for a wide range of discussion on the tariff, the currency and the Populist platform. Mr. Hill's proposition, made last week, to amend the deficiency bill so that the income tax would be tested in the courts, has apparently started an inexhaustible flow of speeches on public affairs in general. Mr. Cockrell, in charge of the deficiency bill, has sought valently to secure a vote on the Hill amendment, so that the deficiency bill might move along to final passage. He hopes to secure action today, but the speeches of Mr. Call of Florida and Allen of Nebraska made this impossible.

Mr. Allen took occasion to defend the Populist party against many charges made in and out of congress that it was a party of vagaries. It led to a very full discussion of all Populist doctrine and a comparison of them with the doctrines of other parties.

Houses.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The day in the house was devoted after the morning hour to the Indian appropriation bill, but no progress was made before adjournment.

General Grosvenor presented a reply to a memorial sent to the judiciary committee by Mr. Kitchie of Akron, Ohio, containing supplementary charges against Judge Ricks and involving ex-Senator H. B. Payne and Judge Stevenson Burke. He asked for an investigation of the charges.

DETERMINED TO ORGANIZE.

The Homestead Workmen Will Hold Another Meeting Tonight.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 16.—The wholesale discharge of workmen by the Carnegie company at Homestead for attending the meeting on Sunday has, instead of checking organization among the men, aroused a feeling of resentment that bids fair to bear fruit this evening, when another massmeeting will be held in the opera house. The excitement is intense and the action of the company, which is termed un-American, is denounced on all sides. The meeting will be addressed by President Garland and other prominent men. The 100 discharged men are encouraged in the belief that a powerful organization will be affected soon, and another strike inaugurated; but this, to an outsider, looks very improbable. No more discharges were made at the mill yesterday, but the officials have the names of at least 150 who attended Sunday's meeting. They will be dealt with as the others were, should no cause arise.

Several Drowned.

GALVESTON, Jan. 16.—A special to The Tribune from Velasco says it is now definitely known that Captain Fred A. Brock and his wife and two children of Galveston, with several members of the crew on the dredgeboat Mount Waldo, which Captain Brock was bringing from Tampico to Velasco, were drowned in the lifeboat which they took to escape from the dread storm a few hours out from Tampico Tuesday night.

Wrights Byrnes to Remain.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Mayor Strong has asked Superintendent Byrnes to remain at the head of the police department of this city. The mayor yesterday sent a letter to the superintendent, referring to his long and honorable service and the probability of legislation at Albany, which will necessitate changes in the department and returning Byrnes' letter.

The Gorge Broken.

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 16.—There has been a heavy freshet in the west fork of the Monongahela river, which took out the ice that was gorged for a mile. For some time it was believed that the bridge would be taken out at this city crossing Elk creek. The damage along the river and creek is very great, and can not be estimated.

Two Lives Were Lost.

OWENSBOURG, Ky., Jan. 16.—The towboat Boaz and live barges of coal have been recovered. Most of the men escaped and stayed in the woods. Two men passed here early yesterday on the drift and have not been seen since. Half a million bushels of coal are in the bottom of the river. The loss is about $60,000.

Killed by a Boy.

HINTON, W. Va., Jan. 16.—News has reached here of the killing of J. H. Hudson, one of the best known citizens of Monroe county, by Osborne Garten, a school boy, aged 16. They quarreled about Hudson's daughter, with whom young Garten was in love. Hudson attacked the young man and was stabbed.

West Virginia Declines.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 16.—The house of delegates yesterday adopted a resolution declining to treat with the commission appointed under a joint resolution adopted by the Virginia legislature looking to the settlement of the debt question on the basis set forth by the legislature of Virginia.

Pension Frauds Sentenced.

VICKSBURG, Miss., Jan. 16.—In the federal court Revs. Richard World, W. T. Bowman and R. J. Donnell, all pension frauds, were sentenced to three years each in the Klings county (N. Y.) prison. C. N. Boyer, white, was sentenced to 15 months for the same offense.

Reforms For Cuba.

MADRID, Jan. 16.—The cabinet has decided to formulate reforms for Cuba. The councils general and the Protectionist deputies will be asked to withdraw their extreme demands.

COLONEL COIT GIVES BOND.

He's Charged With Manslaughter at Washington C. H., O.

WASHINGTON, C. H., Jan. 16.—Colonel Coit arrived at 3:30 yesterday, gave bond for his appearance in court to answer the charge of manslaughter and returned to Columbus at 4:30. His bond was fixed at $2,500 on each of the three counts of indictments and was signed by Hon. Mills Gardner and W. E. Cook of this county and John Deshler, George W. Sinks and E. K. Stewart of Columbus, who came with him for that purpose. He was also accompanied by four officers of his regiment, Captains Goldney and Moor, Surgeon Gundersen and Lieutenant Williams, and by Attorneys George K. Nash and H. W. Booth. Upon motion of Judge Nash the court excused Coit from pleading to the indictments until his attorneys examine them. If the visiting party expected a crowd to greet them they were disappointed, as but few people were at the train, and not more than 75 in the courtroom. The date of the trial has not yet been fixed.

JUDGE RICKS' IMPEACHMENT.

House Judiciary Committee Favors It—The Charges Against Him.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The house judiciary committee yesterday decided to report a resolution for the impeachment of Judge Ricks of Cleveland. The vote was for, 7; against, 6. The vote was nearly on party lines, but one Republican voting for impeachment and one Democrat against it. On Friday Mr. Bailey will present a majority report to the committee and Mr. Broderick a minority report. The supporters of Judge Ricks entertain hopes that the decision will be reversed. The Republicans accused the Democrats of holding prejudices against Federal judges and of losing no opportunity to strike at them.

The charges are preferred by the Central Labor union of Cleveland, which accuses Judge Ricks, while sitting on the bench, of having paid to himself fees which he claimed he had previously earned as clerk of the court, and to which it is now asserted he was not entitled.

SWINDLERS' NEW SCHEME.

Unscrupulous Farmers Hoping to Get Rich in the Vicinity of Celina, O.

CELINA, Jan. 16.—A gang of swindlers and sharks are securing big money from the citizens and farmers. Probably one of the best swindling games ever brought to light is the "grapevine game." The swindler buys a quantity of cheap grape root, then purchases the large California grapes at the grocery. He represents the roots to beat these kinds of grapes. The roots are sold for $1 each. A number of farmers have been swindled out of their money by the above scheme. The swindlers have made between $50 and $500 a day.

Swarming With Prospectors.

GETTINIG, O. T., Jan. 16.—Hundreds of prospectors are swarming into the Wichita mountains in the Kiowa and Comanche Indian reservation caused by the discovery of rich deposits of gold and silver. Troops have been ordered from Fort Reno to eject them and serious trouble is looked for as the prospectors declare they have right in the mountains under the mining laws and will not leave. Many samples of rich ore have been brought out for assay in the past few days and a general stampede for the mines will likely ensue.

Boulders May Escape.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 16.—The boulder aldermen may escape after all, owing to faulty constructions of the indictments against them. Monday Judge Moise rendered a decision quashing the indictment against William J. Kline, and he was discharged without delay.

The same opportunity will probably be given in all the other cases where the district attorney has failed to draw up the indictment in the proper manner.

International Drill.

MEMPHIS, Jan. 16.—Commencing May 13, and lasting six days an international drill and encampment will be held in this city. Twenty thousand dollars in prizes will be offered divided into seven classes including the army regulations, tactics, upsets, casings, and hardie, also for artillery and cavalry and brass bands. Companies from all parts of the United States are expected to be present.

Two Young Women Drowned.

HARDIN, Ills., Jan. 16.—While crossing the Mississippi river on the ice at the Calhoun clubhouse, Miss Ida Tremble and Miss Mollie Rodgers broke through the ice and were drowned. Frank Phillips of Hamburg narrowly escaped drowning in his efforts to save the unfortunate women. The bodies were recovered.

Held Up and Robbed of $175.

HURRICANE, W. Va., Jan. 16.—W. M. Bays, a fur buyer, was attacked on Horse creek by three masked men and at the point of revolvers forced to give up $175, a revolver, watch and all the furs he had. He could give no description of the men, but thinks they were white men.

Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The sundry civil appropriation bill for the fiscal year, 1896, was completed by the house yesterday. It carries $38,540,021, being $7,8

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 16, 1895.

COVINGTONIANS will no doubt be surprised to learn that Mr. Gregg is Judge of their Police Court. The Ledger says so, and you know "it's so if it's in the ledger." All the same Mr. Gregg "dispenses" justice across the Ohio in the wicked Queen City.

A LEADING religious paper of Philadelphia charges that the City Council got $362,000 out of the total of $1,000,000 stock issued, as the price of passing the ordinance giving a company the use of the streets. What a nest of Republican corruptionists they must have up in the Quaker City!

LET "Free Travel" be the watchword in the next campaign in Mason County.—Public Ledger.

Now why should the question be postponed until the next campaign? The new Fiscal Court is composed of some of our good citizens and tax-payers. Why delay the matter?

TATE the Rascal—with a big R—is no more entitled to immunity than South Dakota's Rascally Republican Treasurer—with big R's in front of Rascally Republican. The Ledger doesn't believe in offsetting one thief with another, except so far as to show that all dishonest men are not Republicans, and all honest men are not Democrats. Taylor the Republican and Tate the Democrat deserve the same fate—lifetime behind the bars.—Public Ledger.

Certainly. No good citizen is in favor of granting immunity to thieves. Why should the editor of the Ledger "blow" himself on this point?

Ever since Dick Tate's defalcation, the editor of the Ledger has been holding the matter up as an argument in favor of putting Republicans, and only Republicans, in office; in other words he has been talking as if all Democrats were rascals and all Republicans were honest men. Now that South Dakota's Republican Treasurer has skipped out with nearly $400,000 of the State's funds, the Ledger man is willing to admit (he couldn't do otherwise, you see,) that there are some Republican thieves in the land.

DOESN'T KNOW WHAT HE'S TALKING ABOUT.

Maysville is in the throes of a Sunday closing law. She must not expect the millennium in six months after Republicans get control. It's a hard task to reform a town that's been Democratic straight for forty years.—Portsmouth Tribune.

The Tribune should not attempt to discuss Maysville affairs until it has more knowledge of the subject than it displays above.

PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS.

An Opportunity to Secure Instruction Free of Tuition, at the Georgetown College.

Georgetown College, appreciating the earnest desire of the teachers of the public schools to fit themselves in the best manner possible for their work, decided last June to open a Normal Department for the last half of this scholastic year. Instruction in that department will begin Jan. 22d, the opening of the spring term of the college.

The instruction will be in charge of the Faculty of the college and will be thorough and in keeping with the best modern methods. Dr. Rucker will have charge of mathematics, Dr. Yager, civil government, Dr. Eastwood, natural sciences, Miss Pollard, history, Prof. Pollard, English grammar and general normal methods.

In addition to the normal course the teachers may avail themselves of the advantages of any or all the classes in the college, and in this way fit themselves, if desired, for advanced work.

For this year it has been decided that no tuition fee will be charged. Good boarding can be had in the town for from three dollars to three and a half per week. The college boarding halls are now full, or still better rates could be offered. Correspondence with teachers is earnestly solicited. For further information in reference to the normal course or the college, address A. C. DAVIDSON, President, Georgetown, Kentucky.

Annual Meeting.

The stockholders of the Union Agricultural Society are hereby requested to meet in Germantown, Saturday, January 19th, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year. By order of the President.

FREE PIKES.

There Are Two Sides to This, As There Are to Most Every Other Question.

An Interesting Article From Mr. H. H. Cox in Favor of the Toll-gates.

Editor Bulletin: I notice in the last three or four issues of the Ledger the editor is getting terribly wrought up on the subject of free turnpikes. As one of the tax-payers of Mason County and the City of Maysville, I am somewhat interested in the subject. He says in each article that he wants the expense of keeping up the pikes to be alike on every citizen, and claims that now a portion of the citizens only have to bear all the expense for the benefit of all. I have been gate-keeper of the Maysville, Orangefield and Mt. Carmel pike for over twelve years, and necessarily the subject of free pikes often comes up in my intercourse with the traveling public. I have given the subject much study, listened to all that could be said in favor of free pikes, and have become more and more convinced that there is no plan that can be adopted that will be as just and fair to the taxpayer as the toll-gate system.

The Ledger has suggested but one plan, and that he seems to approach with much hesitation; that is for the county to pay the pike companies what they receive from the gates, and the companies to keep the pikes up. Let us look at that. Would all the people be at equal expense for all the people? For the life of me I can't see it. Would not the tax-payers only of Mason County have to furnish the funds? At least one-half the traffic through my gate is from Fleming and Lewis counties, and at least one-fourth are non tax-payers, many of them from Ohio. It would not cost them a cent. There is not a pike in the county that leads into adjoining counties but what has more or less of the same traffic. Who built the pikes in the first place but the tax-payers? And let me say just here that it is not the farmers of the country who are complaining; every one of them would like to have one in front of his house, and are making miles of them every year, and they add value to every acre where made.

In most of the counties of Ohio they have free pikes, so called, but I have never met with any of her citizens that claimed they had what we call pikes. In summer time they are worse than our dirt roads. I heard an intelligent-looking drummer from Cincinnati some months since say that the only pikes in Hamilton County fit to travel on had gates on them.

There are just as good farms in Brown County, Ohio, as many of Mason that can be bought for one-fourth what the Mason farm will sell for. Why should it be so? Bad roads and excessive taxation does it.

If it is the right thing for the tax-payers of Mason County to do to make the pikes free, why would it not be the right thing for the tax-payers of Maysville to pay the street car company the amount of their receipts and run it free, or for the general Government to own all railroads and steamboats and run them free?

There is not an argument that will apply in one case that will not apply in the other.

The Ledger claims, I believe, that he is advocating Republican principles. There again he is wrong. If I am not much mistaken the Republicans of the present Congress, with perhaps one or two exceptions, voted against the income tax for the very same reason I would vote against free turnpikes.

Doubtless some of the pikes of the county charge more than what is right. The County Court should take hold of this and regulate it by making the rate of toll the same on every road in the county. Respectfully, H. H. COX.

The Remains of the Venerable Pastor of St. Patrick's Church Interred in Washington Cemetery.

The Last Chapter—Impressive Services at the Church—Visiting Clergymen—The Procession.

"Well done, thou good and faithful servant," are words that can be most appropriately spoken of Rev. Father Glorieux whose remains were laid to rest in the cemetery near Washington on Tuesday morning.

Many priests of the diocese attended the funeral and the citizens of Maysville crowded the church to its full capacity, many being unable to gain admittance to take a farewell look at the venerable priest whom they loved so well, and to whom they desired to pay a last tribute of respect.

Promptly at 9 o'clock the funeral services began by the chanting of prayers for the dead by the following priests who were seated in the sanctuary: Very Rev. F. Brossart, Covington; Rev. James Gorey, Covington; Rev. E. T. Donnelly, Brooksville; Rev. T. S. Major, Winchester; Rev. T. N. Kehoe, Ludlow; Rev. F. Kehoe, Covington; Rev. B. Griefencamp, Augusta; Rev. J. Hickey, Mill Creek; Rev. F. Donnelly, White Sulphur; Rev. G. Bealer, Nicholasville; Rev. Father Albrecht, of Central Covington; Rev. W. Goselin, of Ashland, and Rev. Father, Ennis and Father Deiner, of this city.

A solemn requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. B. Griefencamp, with Rev. G. Bealer, Deacon, and Rev. F. Kehoe Subdeacon, with Rev. James Gorey, Master of Ceremonies. The services were the most impressive ever held in St. Patrick's Church. It was something unusual to see about twenty priests officiating at one service.

At the close of the mass the choir rendered in a sweet and most pathetic manner the beautiful hymn, "Some Sweet Day, By and By," after which Father Brossart blessed the remains.

The Vicar General, as the representative of Bishop Maes, expressed the latter's regrets at not being able to be present, and apologizing himself for not delivering the funeral oration, as he was expected, on account of illness.

Rev. F. Donnelly, of White Sulphur, delivered the funeral sermon. After dwelling for some time on the noble deeds, the faithful works and the many charities of the beloved and revered pastor he closed his remarks with a pathetic reference to the faithful devotion of the Catholics of this city, and the honor shown the deceased by his many non-Catholic friends.

During the services many a silent tear was shed and many sobs and sighs of sorrow were heard. The citizens who desired passed up the north aisle and viewed the remains for the last time, after which the casket containing the body was taken from the church and placed on pedestals in front of the church where the remains were viewed by the societies, after which they were placed in the hearse and the march to the grave began. The procession was headed by the Knights of St. John, followed by the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Father McHugh's T. A. Society, the F. M. T. A. Cadets and St. Patrick's Benevolent Society. The honorary pall-bearers were James N. Kehoe, W. A. Cole, Martin A. O'Hare, F. P. O'Donnell, M. R. Gilmore and George F. Brown. The active pall-bearers were Robert Brown, Patrick Fox, John T. Short, Timothy McAuliffe, Patrick Breen and Frederick Schroeder. Then followed the carriages of the visiting clergy, the hearse and the large concourse of sorrowing friends.

The funeral procession wended its way to "the city of the dead" and on arriving at the grave the remains were gently taken from the hearse by the loving hands of his brother priests and placed over the grave. After a short prayer by the pastor Rev. Father Ennis, the remains were lowered into the grave by the pall-bearers. Then followed prayer and the last sad rites had been performed for a priest who had spent thirty-eight years of his life as a minister of God, in which time he had given consolation to many, many persons who will always remember him as a tender father and a most devoted Christian friend; and now that his labors are ended and that his life work is closed, they can but wish him a place of rest in heaven, after his years of usefulness and duty well done.

The Rev. Father Ennis was untiring in his tender ministrations and deserves and receives the thanks of the Catholics of the parish for the interest taken in Father Glorieux's behalf during his illness and at his death and burial.

CAPTAIN PHILLIP MOORE brought suit at Vanceburg Monday against Captain Thomas Redden for $4,000 damages. Redden, who is a leading Democrat, met Captain Moore, who is an influential Republican, in the court house awhile before the election. The men got into a warm dispute that culminated in a fight. Redden knocked Moore down and kicked him in the side. Moore claims that he has received injuries that are permanent.

CAPTAIN RUGGLESS, of Vanceburg, has lost the following relatives since last July: First, died his daughter, Mrs. Anna Wirthlin; next died a son of this daughter. Next died his grown-up grandson, Joy Lindsey Bivin. Then followed a great-grandson, Harry, son of Sheriff Crit Willim. Next died Mrs. Lewis Ruggless, the Captain's sister-in-law. Last died his noble son, the banker, Colonel Socrates Ruggless, who was buried a few days ago.

THE GOOD PEOPLE of Mt. Sterling and Montgomery County seem determined to run down and punish the parties who recently lynched the man Blair. Governor Brown has offered $400 each for the apprehension and arrest of the parties engaged in the hanging, and to this amount the county has added $100 each. This amount has brought three detectives. It is said they are on a hot trail, and ere the week ends the noose will be drawn tightly around the entire number engaged in the lynching, and the grand jury, which meets next Monday, will find no difficulty in indicting the proper persons.

THE "BLACK KNOT" COMMISSION.

SOME COMMENTS ON JUDGE HUTCHINS' ACTION IN REMOVING MESSRS. MITCHELL AND DIETERICH.

Editor Bulletin: Judge Hutchins at his first court held on Monday, without any known provocation or cause and without even due notice, entered an order removing Messrs. Sanford H. Mitchell and Charles P. Dieterich from the "Black Knot" Commission and appointing in their places Messrs. Patrick Walton and M. F. Dunham. The Commission originally consisted of Messrs. Mitchell, Dieterich and W. W. Lynch, two Democrats and one Republican, and were appointed last spring by Judge Phister. Judge Hutchins evidently believes in the doctrine "that to the victors belong the spoils" and hence has very promptly made this Commission solidly Republican.

The appointment was made under Section 1919 Kentucky Statutes which reads as follows: "In any county in this State in which such contagious disease (Black Knot) exists or where there is good reason to believe it exists, or danger may be justly apprehended of its introduction, it shall be the duty of the County Judge of any county, upon the application made in writing and signed by at least three freeholders, who are residents of said county, to appoint forthwith three competent freeholders, who are residents of said county, who shall be fruit growers of said county, as Commissioners, who shall hold office during the pleasure of said County Judge, and such order of appointment and revocation shall be entered at large on the county records."

It doesn't appear from the record that this disease exists in the county. No evidence being introduced upon the subject, might it not be presumed that the efficient old committee has effectively wiped it out of existence? To this presumption his honor may reply, that he knows the fact or has received private information of it. It may possibly be that he snuffed "Black Knot" in the wind when he made his late campaign and therefore knows it to be somewhere in the county. Further it does not appear from the records that any written application &c. was made to the court or that the appointees are freeholders or fruit growers.

However waiving these little irregularities we think it would have been more decent and proper had his honor Judge Hutchins notified Messrs. Mitchell and Dieterich of his intended action and requested their resignation. As it is the record simply shows their removal, from which it might be inferred that they were removed for some unknown misfeasance or malfeasance in office. Again Judge Hutchins should have been as generous as his predecessor, Judge Phister, and given the opposite party one representative on the Commission.

HISTORIC FURNACE.

The First One Constructed West of the Alleghenies Falling Into Decay.

ASHLAND, Ky., Jan. 16.—Slowly falling into decay, comparatively unknown and wholly neglected, are the ruins of the first iron furnace built this side of the Allegheny mountains, one mile west of Owingsville, in Bath county.

The furnace was put up by Colonel Thomas Owings, an energetic emigrant from Maryland, shortly after the close of the revolution. The first blast was made in 1789, and until the panic of the thirties the plant was kept in operation at a fairly steady rate. The finances of the colonel gave way beneath the strain of those trying times, however, and, leaving the concern to his creditors, he went west. It never recovered the blow of his desertion, and has since been entirely neglected.

During the period of its operation the plant was devoted, to a considerable extent, to the manufacture of cannon balls. At the battle of New Orleans the cannons were supplied with balls made by this furnace. At many other conflicts of the war of 1812 the products of this out-of-the-way furnace were used.

There is now a movement on foot to secure the grounds about the ruins for a park, to be supported by the county, and the idea is meeting the general favor of the people.

THEY MAY STRIKE.

The Windowglass Workers in the Anderson (Ind.) District.

ANDERSON, Ind., Jan. 16.—The 500 window-glass workers in this district of the local assembly are on the verge of a big strike. Previous dispatches told of manufacturers who would soon shut down their plants for six weeks, and compel another reduction in wages. Either of these moves will, in all probability, be met with a strike in all factories west of Pittsburgh.

New Tinplate Workers' Scale.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 16.—The Amalgamated association has adopted a new wage scale, which will affect about 10,000 tinplate workers throughout the country. It is practically the compromise offered by the workers to the manufacturers at the joint meeting Monday, and involves a reduction of from 12 1/2 to 15 per cent on the scale of 1894-5. The reduction is about 1 1/2 of what the manufacturers asked. The new terms have been accepted by the Cumberland Tinplate company, and that plant will resume operations at once. Other mills are expected to soon follow this example.

Killed His Wife and Himself.

ELKHART, Ind., Jan. 16.—Early last evening Thomas J. Beckwith shot and killed his wife and then committed suicide. Beckwith had forbidden his wife and stepdaughter to attend a church entertainment. The women were dressing when Beckwith rushed into their room, fired three shots at his wife, two of which took effect, and then going into the parlor sent a bullet through his head.

Was Almost a Century Old.

SIDNEY, O., Jan. 16.—Mrs. Rebecca Morton, 99, died near this place last night. She was the widow of Washington Morton, soldier of the war of 1812, and the oldest person in Shelby county. She resided on the same farm 60 years and was a widow since 1849.

Items Picked Up by the Bulletin's Correspondents in Mason and Elsewhere

GERMANTOWN.

With the mercury lingering about zero it is too cold to hunt up items.

Married, on last Wednesday evening, January 9th, by Rev. T. J. Fizer, at the residence of James Breeze, Esq., Miss Ida Harris, of Ohio, to Mr. Everlet, of Brooksville.

When our base ball team went to Maysville last summer and got beaten they were written up pretty heavily in the Maysville dailies, but one of our boys, A. D. McDougle, went down last week and took all the wind out of the sails of their champion chess player who claimed to be third in the National contest, beating him three straight games, and not a word is written about it. If any other of Maysville's good citizens think they can play chess just send them out, we have other players as good as Mcle.

Almost A Murder.

A special says an exciting scene took place at Vanceburg Tuesday morning in the law office of R. D. Wilson. The wife of Prof. Perry Riley sued for divorce, and depositions were being taken in the case. While Captain Phillip Moore was testifying for Mrs. Riley and detailing the alleged brutal conduct of Prof. Riley, the latter seized an iron bar and attempted to brain Moore. The latter drew a revolver, and it was with great difficulty the men were kept from murdering each other.

For Register of the Land Office.

Frankfort Capital: "While the subject of new and prospectively new candidates is up, the name of James N. Keloe, of Maysville, had as well be mentioned as a most probable early entry for Register of the Land Office."
